

Movement and Change in Field Education

The Australia – New Zealand Association of Theological Field Educators will be gathering in Melbourne to share, reflect, engage and consider our past and our future contributions to the work of leadership formation through our colleges, churches, and communities.

28-30 November 2011

Whitley College, Melbourne

Keynote speakers:

- Colin Hunter – Signposts from our Past for our Future
- Victoria Matthews – Clergy: Agents of Change and Keepers of the Tradition
- Merrill Kitchen – Formation And Transformation In A Globalising World

Conference dinner speaker:

- Matthew Floding – Are We On The Same Page? Thoughts From Up-Over For Down-Under

Elective workshops:

- Essentials For New Field Educators – Andrew Prince
- Lost (Or Found) In (Cyber-) Space – John Chalmers
- Knowing Your Story: Growing Through Your Family Of Origin – Roslyn H Wright
- Entering A Community Of Practice: An Adaptive Challenge For Field Education – Matthew Floding
- Dynamic Theological Reflection And Covenantal Supervision – Marilyn and Roger Evans
- Teaching Theological Reflection: Making Connections – Nancy J Ault
- Nurturing Lay Ministry Through Appropriate Supervision – Neil Sims
- Earthquake Spirituality – Victoria Matthews
- Missional Encounters: The Role Of Missional Ministry Experience In Emerging Leaders – Ian Grant
- Peer Review Of Field Education Documentation (2 sessions) – Murray House and Doug Robertson
- Practical Theology And Field Education: Completing The Circle – Joseph E. Bush
- Theological Reflection As A Spirituality-Theology-Ministry Dialogue – Bruce Hulme

We invite you to come and share in this experience with colleagues old and new.

Conference Enquiries: Rev Richard Trist, Treasurer, Victorian Association for Theological Field Education
Tel: (+61 3) 9207 4800 ext 924 Fax: (+61 3) 9387 5099 E-mail: r.trist@ridley.edu.au

Sponsored by Whitley College - Equipping leaders for a different world