The Theology of John Wesley

The Theology of John Wesley is a series of lectures by distinguished Professor of Wesley Studies and Historical Theology at Asbury Theological Seminary, Dr Kenneth J Collins.

Dr Collins has lectured and taught on the theology of John Wesley throughout the world in diverse settings from Moscow to Costa Rica and is known for his engaging, critical-thinking style. He is recognised for his exemplary teaching and is the 2008 recipient of the Professor of the Year Award for Excellence in Teaching and Learning at Asbury Theological Seminary.

Dr Collins has published a host of books and scores of articles exploring topics ranging from Wesleyan theology to Christian spirituality. His highly regarded book, The Theology of John Wesley: Holy Love and the Shape of Grace, is described as the most complete and correct account of John Wesley's theology available.

Dr Collins' lectures on The Theology of John Wesley are not to be missed.

The sessions are open to all.

Registration is required for all sessions. A registration fee is payable for the morning sessions on 24 and 25 January. The 25 January session is designed for clergy and educators though all are welcome.

The 24 January, evening session on Good News to the Poor is free.
