

Melbourne College of Divinity

Research Scholar Application

Personal Details

Title: _____ Surname: _____ Given names: _____

Email address: _____

RTI: _____ Position: _____ Full / Part time and fraction: _____

Please note that all communication will be electronic.

Area of Research Specialisation (Choose ONE option from the areas nominated by the Research Committee):

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Biblical Studies | <input type="checkbox"/> Interfaith Dialogue |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Systematic and Contextual Theology | <input type="checkbox"/> Missiology |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Ethics | <input type="checkbox"/> Pastoral Theology/Religious Education |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Church History | <input type="checkbox"/> Religion and Philosophy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Ecumenics | <input type="checkbox"/> Spirituality |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Indigenous Theology | <input type="checkbox"/> Ministry Studies |

Please provide a brief description of proposed research project, including whether or not the project will involve human research, or research based on records not in the public domain.

(100 words maximum)

Please attach a list of refereed publications which have appeared in the last five years.

An MCD Research Scholar will be appointed for a period of six months. The Research Scholar's home institution will be paid teaching relief to allow the Scholar to devote one day per week to their duties for the period of the appointment.

An MCD Research Scholar's duties will include:

- To research and write at least one paper for refereed publication;
- To conduct a seminar during their appointment, or up to one month later;
- To conduct one training event for research supervisors in their field during their appointment.
- To submit research projects to HREC for appropriate ethical clearance

Please indicate the date at which you would be able to take up an appointment as an MCD research scholar:/...../.....

SIGNATURES

Certification by Applicant

I understand and agree that all research undertaken whilst holding an appointment as an MCD Research Scholar must be carried out in accordance with the Melbourne College of Divinity Research Policy and in accordance with the ethical clearance policies of the MCD HREC.

Signature: (Applicant)	Date:
-----------------------------------	--------------

Certification by RTI Executive Officer

I have read and support this application and certify that the RTI can and will provide the applicant with release from teaching and/or other administrative and/or research duties to the equivalent of one day per week for the period of the applicant's appointment (normally 6 months).

Signature: (RTI Executive Officer)	Date:
---	--------------

Certification by RTI Research Coordinator

I have read and support this application.

Signature: (RTI Research Coordinator)	Date:
--	--------------

Completed applications should be submitted to:

Director of Research
Melbourne College of Divinity
21 Highbury Grove
Kew VIC 3101

Tel.: (03) 9853 3177 Fax: (03) 9853 6695 Email: directorofresearch@mcd.edu.au

admin@mcd.edu.au

tel. (03) 9853 3177
www.mcd.edu.au

fax (03) 9853 6695