

SPIRITUALITY IN THE PUB

An initiative of Catalyst for Renewal

2010 Theme: From Christendom to Pluralism: where are we now?

Part 5: Mission as making a new humanity: spreading the Gospel today

Tuesday, October 27, 2010

PLEASE NOTE THE CHANGE OF DATE!*

Dr Jacob Kavunkal, svd

Jacob is a member of the Society of the Divine Word and holds Licentiate and Doctorate in Missiology from the Gregorian University, Rome and has published extensively on missiological topics.

Jacob has been re-inducted into the YTU as a full-timer after his retirement from the Pontifical Athenaeum, Pune. His latest publication is: Anthropophany: Mission as Making a New Humanity (Delhi: ISPCK, 2008). He has initiated a project to publish a one-volume Encyclopaedia of Christianity in India. He is also the founder of the Fellowship of Indian Missiologists.

All are welcome to gather for a meal from 5.30pm. If you plan to do so, it is essential to book and arrive as early as possible – phone: The New Bay : 9596 4949 by Monday, 21 June. Book under “Spirituality in the Pub” or join from 7.30 – 9.00pm for the presentation and conversation. For further details on SIP contact Kevin 9776 2705, Vin 9530 6004, Frances 9579 3920 or George 95981195

Please note the different date – Tuesday, rather than Wednesday – this is because of changed arrangements at The New Bay. On the Tuesday, we will now have the Dining Room to ourselves for the whole evening.
